

Milan Ristović (Priština, 1953) graduated at Department of Contemporary History, Faculty of Philosophy, University of Belgrade. In 1991, received Ph. D. from same Faculty; dissertation entitled: The German "New Order" and Southeastern Europe, 1940/41- 1944/45: Experience and Plans for the Future. From 1978 to 1989 worked at the Institute for Contemporary History, Belgrade. In 1990 joined Faculty of Philosophy, Department of History. Elected assistant professor 1991; 1998 associated professor, 2002 professor. Head of the History department 2002-2004; from 2004 chief of the Chair for General Modern History at the same Faculty.

Researches and scholarships: Great Britain (1983, 1994), Germany (Institut für Europäische Geschichte, Mainz 1984, 1987; Leipzig, Centre for the History and Culture of East-Central Europe - GWZO); Greece (Alexander Onassis Foundation, Athens, 2004), Imre Kertesz Koleg –at Friedrich- Schiller- Universität Jena, 2014. Gave lectures at number of foreign universities.

From 1994 managing editor of journal Godišnjak za društvenu istoriju (Annual of Social History). In 1998 cofounder and Head of the Society for Social History, Belgrade. Member of Board of Editors in historical magazines: Tokovi istorije, Glasnik Vojnoistorijskog Instituta. Member of the Imre Kertes z- Gremium.

Main field of interest: History of South East Europe in 20th Century, Social history, history of ideas. Held courses on European Political History in 20th Century, Fascism and Occupation Systems in Europe during Second World War, Social and History of Culture in 20th century.

Published in Serbian, English, German, Italian, Greek, Czech, Polish, Portugese, Bulgarian and Russian language over 130 works:

monographs, short studies and articles. He has participated as the head, coordinator or contributor in numerous national and international research projects.

Main publications:

1. Turkish Wachtower. Yugoslav-Turkish Relations in Second World War an its Balkan context, Čigoja štampa-Udruženje za društvenu istoriju, Belgrade 2013, 223.
2. History of Private Life of the Serbs, (in collaboration with Marko Popović and Miroslav Timotijević), CLIO, Belgrade 2012, 643.
3. Righteous among the Nations-Serbia, Jevrejska opština Zemun, Belgrade 2010 (in collaboration with Milan Fogel and Milan Koljanin), 329.
4. Ένα μακρυ ταξιδι. Τα παιδια του «παιδομαζωματος» στη Γιουγκοσλαβια 1948-1960. Επικεντρο, Θεσσαλοωικη 2008, 277.
5. Private Life of the Serbs in 20th Century (ed.), CLIO, Београд 2007.
6. Black Peter and the Balkan Brigands. Balkans and Serbia in the German Satirical Magazines 1903/1918, Belgrade, 2003, 136; (published bilingual-on English and Serbian language; second revised edition in Serbian, 2011).
7. Ordinary People. Supplies for the History, Belgrade 1999,132; (Bulgarian edition by University publishing House Neofit Rilsky, Blagoevgrad 2013, 175)

8. A Long Journey Home. Greek Refugee Children in Yugoslavia (1948-1960), UDI, Belgrade 1998, 217(English edition Institute for Balkan Studies, Thessaloniki 2000, 138)
9. In Search of Refuge. Yugoslav Jews Fleeing the Holocaust 1941-1945), Belgrade 1998, 382.
10. German "New Order" and Southeastern Europe 1940/41-1944/45. Plans on Future and Practice, Belgrade, 1991, 418; 2nd ed. 2002, 429.